At the fair, a senior UN official said China will remain one of the top choices for overseas investment, and for multinationals to expand their Research and Development work. Secretary general of the United Nations Conference of Trade and Development, Supachai Panitchpakdi, said the latest forecast on Foreign Direct Investment shows that global investment will keep growing in the mid and short-term, especially in China. Meanwhile, China itself has become one of the largest investors among developing countries. The countrys outbound investment reached 3.6 billion US dollars in 2004. A survey by UNCTAD revealed that many investment promotion institutions chose China as one of the major investment powers in next three years. 更多信息请关注考试大外语站点。100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
