Correction (15 minutes) Most studies suggest that when women and men do the same job and have the experience, pay rates tend to be similar. Most of the dollar differences stem from fact that

-----71. women tend to be more recently employed and have more
-----72. years on the job. Whether women who have started a career will attain pay equality with men rest on at least two factors.

-----73. First, will most of them continue part time at their jobs after -----74. they have children? A break in their employment, or a decision -----75. to work part time, will slow its raises and promotions because it would for men. Second, will male-dominated -----76. companies elevate women to higher-paid jobs at the different -----77. rate as they elevate men? On some fields, this had clearly not -----78. happened. Many men, for example, have committed their -----79. lives to teaching careers, yet relative few have become -----80. principals or headmasters.

答案：71. from fact -gt. frequently 73. rest -gt. full 75. its -gt. as 77. different -gt. In 79. men -gt. relatively 第二篇：Error Correction (15 minutes) Time spent in a bookstore can be enjoyable, if --71. you are a book-lover or merely there to buy a book at present. You may even have entered the shop just to find shelter away a sudden shower. --72. Whatever the reasons, you can soon become totally unaware of your surroundings. The desire to pick up a book with an attractive dust jacket is irresistible, even this method of selection ought not to be followed, as you might end up with a rather bored book. You soon become engrossed in some book or other, and usually it is only much later that you realise you have spent far more time there and must dash off to keep some forgotten appointment -- without buying a book, of course. This opportunity to escape the realities of everyday life is, I think, the main attraction of a bookshop. There are not many places where it is impossible to do this. A music shop is very much like a bookshop. You can wander round such places to your hearts content. If it is a good shop, no assistant will approach to you with the inevitable greeting: "Can I help you, Sir?" You needn't buy anything if you don't want. In a bookshop an assistant should remain in the background until you have finished browsing. Then, only then, are his services necessary. Of course, you may want to find out where a particular section is, since when he has led you there, the assistant should retire discreetly and look as he is not interested in selling a single book.
