PDF

hich of the following explains why the performance of a client with a shared printer in an nt domain is not affected? the domain controller performs all the spooling. the job is converted from emf to raw on each client pc prior to being sent to the server pc. the clients all share a network version of the printer driver. correct answer is b what type of memory is available to msdos apps in win95 (choose three)? my answers: extended, expanded, conventional. other choice was paged. name two reasons that win95 says that it has a conflict between two plugamp.play devices. the resource arbitrator assigns legacy devices higher priority than plugamp.play devices for resources. answers are b and c. what things can you do to increase available memory for dos apps? my answers: load real-mode drivers in upper memory, run in dos-mode. what two windows utilities can be used to change the message the user sees upon login to network? ??? choices were write.exe, regedit, system policy editor what tool would you use to add a shared file on a remote computer that doesn't have remote registry service installed? windows explorer &lt. my choice regedit netwatcher system monitor you want to make the largest possible contiguous free space on your hard drive. what is the fastest way to do this? my answer: consolidate free space only 100Test