New Friends and Old Friends by Joseph Parry Make new friends, but keep the old. Those are silver, these are gold. New-made friendships, like new wine, Age will mellow and refine. Friendships that have stood the test - Time and change - are surely best. Brow may wrinkle, hair grow gray,把雅思加入收藏 Friendship never knows decay. For mid old friends, tried and true, Once more we our youth renew. But old friends, alas! may die, New friends must their place supply. Cherish friendship in your breast - New is good, but old is best. Make new friends, but keep the old. Those are silver, these are gold.

~~~~~ This friendship poem was written by Joseph Parry, (1841-1903). His words in this inspirational poem regarding friendships still hold true today. Throughout our life we are constantly meeting new people. Some remain acquaintances, some become friends. But, with our old friends we sometimes lose touch with them, due to a move, change of job, marriage, children, the list goes on and on. Mr. Parrys point on silver and gold as they refer to friendships are well written. Our old friends are like gold. And our new friends are silver. We must remember to treat our old friends like gold. 相关链接：1月雅思考试网友机经汇总月刊 百考试题特别推荐雅思新手入门指导 2009年4月雅思考试最新信息整理 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
