

雅思作文修改例解：是否应鼓励穿传统服装雅思考试 PDF 转换可能丢失图片或格式，建议阅读原文

https://www.100test.com/kao\_ti2020/564/2021\_2022\_\_E9\_9B\_85\_E6\_80\_9D\_E4\_BD\_9C\_E6\_c7\_564982.htm 注：一篇学生的习作

，里面出现的问题，尤其是首段出现的问题很值得各位雅思学员注意。希望大家看完原文的开头之后，应该思考我们课堂上所讲的文章开头的背景交代的改写方法。 Topic: In many countries people no longer wear their national costumes. They are forgetting their history and traditions, more people should be encouraged to wear their national costumes everyday. Do you agree or disagree. 原文： In this day and age, as a pace of social development, a various kinds of clothes are winning tremendous popularity in some countries. But in the meantime, it has drawn a great deal of attention to the problem that whether more people should be encouraged to wear national clothes everyday. As far as I am concerned, people should not wear them per day. In the first place, it is generally acknowledge that traditional clothes of some countries are inconvenient for national residents to work. It is a fact that some of their costumes, such as kimono of Japan, cheongsam of china and Korea-style cothes, they are too long and big to work. In particular policemen and doctors, these careers are hard to be done if they are wearing such clothes. In the second place, not wearing national costumes doesnt mean their citizens forgetting their history and traditions. Some countries ' history and traditions are still studied by young children. Take Japanese as an example, they always knee down when they are eating meals. Finally, clothes should be kept abreast with step of social development. The style of clothes can mirror the custom in a period of time in a country. Dr. Wang who specializes in society assessment supported this view in a paper. And he said that people living in this fast-paced society should wear neat clothes which are convenient when they are working. To sum up, I completely disagree with the view that people wear the national clothes everyday in the current society. In my opinion, with amount of clothes into our lives, our daily lives should be colorful and fashionable.

点评：1.原文开头模板痕迹比较明显，而且未能将背景信息交代清楚。应该按照课上所讲审题步骤理清文章的习作思路：即，BI(Background information) WT(writing tasks)。因此，首段应该交代好背景信息和自己的观点（已交代）。

2.原文中部分句子之间的Cohesion出现问题。如，“Some countries' history and traditions are still studied by young children.”是对上句的佐证，需加入对比联系词in fact/ on the contrary

3.文章多次出现单词拼写错误，希望引起足够重视。4.文章最后可以在分析不必要性之后，提出消除人们担心的办法。

修改：In this day and age, with the pace of social development, clothes with various styles are winning tremendous popularity in some countries, where national costumes, on the contrary, are not as fashionable as before. Consequently, some people advocate that more people should wear them every day. However, as far as I am concerned, it is unnecessary for everyone to wear those clothes each day. In the first place, it is generally acknowledged that traditional clothes of some countries are inconvenient for national residents to wear in work time. It is a fact that some of their costumes, such as kimono of Japan, cheongsam of china and Korea-style clothes, are too long and big to work. Take policemen and doctors as an example, apparently enough, individuals in these fields can hardly carry out their daily work if wearing such clothes. Actually, there are numerous illustrations like this. In the second place, not wearing national costumes does not mean that citizens are forgetting their history and traditions. In fact, in schools the countries' history is still studied, meanwhile traditions are inherited by the young generations. For instance, in Japan, people, whether the aged or the young, always knee down when eating meals, which has been regarded as one of the traditional customs. Finally, clothes should be kept abreast with the step of social development. The style of clothes can mirror the custom in a period of time in a country. Dr. Wang, a well-known scholar who specializes in society assessment, supports this view in his paper. And he claims that people living in this fast-pace society should wear neat clothes, which are convenient when working. To sum up, I completely disagree with the view that people should wear the national clothes every day in current society. In my opinion, with various clothes of different styles coming into our lives, national costumes can be enriched or developed to a new scale. Additionally, to avoid the extinction of traditions, people should be encouraged to wear their national costumes in leisure time and during the traditional festivals. 相关链接：1月雅思考试网友机经汇总月刊 百考试题特别推荐雅思新手入门指导 2009年4月雅思考试最新信息整理 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com