There are countries ___1___ the white man imposes his rule by brute force. there are countries where the black man protests by ___2___ fire to cities and by looting and pillaging. Important people on both sides, who would in other respects appear to be ___3___ men, get up and calmly argue ___4___ violence- --as if it were a legitimate solution, like any other. What is really frightening, what really fills you ___5___ despair, is the realization that when it comes to the crunch, we have made no actual progress ___6___. We may wear collars and ties instead of war-paint, but our instincts remain basically unchanged. The whole of the ___7___ history of the human race, that tedious documentation of violence, has taught us absolutely nothing. We have still not learnt that violence never ___8___ a problem but makes it more acute. The sheer horror, the bloodshed and the suffering ___9___ nothing. No solution ever comes to light the morning after when we dismally contemplate the smoking ruins and wonder ___10___ hit us. The truly reasonable men who know where the solutions ___11___ are finding it harder and harder to get a hearing. They are despised, mistrusted and even persecuted by their own ___12___ because they advocate such apparently outrageous things ___13___ law enforcement. If half the energy that goes into violent acts were __14__, if our efforts were directed at cleaning up the slums and ghettos, at improving living-standards and providing education and employment __15__ all, we would have gone a long way to arriving at a solution.
