C-The painter of this picture could not intend it to be funny. therefore, its humor must result from a lack of skill. 19. Sentence 5-But the plays complex view of Black self-esteem and human solidarity as compatible is no more "contradictory" than Du Boiss famous, well-considered ideal of ethnic self-awareness coexisting with human unity, or Fanons emphasis on an ideal internationalism that also accommodates national identities and roles. 20. C-Because of shortages in funding, the organizing committee of the choral festival required singers to purchase their own copies of the music performed at the festival. 21. Blank (i) C-mimicking Blank (ii) D-transmitted to Answer in context: New technologies often begin by mimicking what has gone before, and they change the world later. Think how long it took power-using companies to recognize that with electricity they did not need to cluster their machinery around the power source, as in the days of steam. Instead, power could be transmitted to their processes. In that sense, many of todays computer networks are still in the steam age. Their full potential remains unrealized. 22. Blank (i) B-opaque to, Blank (ii) D-an arcane Answer in context: There has been much hand-wringing about how unprepared American students are for college. Graff reverses this perspective, suggesting that colleges are unprepared for students. In his analysis, the university culture is largely opaque to entering students because academic culture fails to make connections to the kinds of arguments and cultural references that students grasp. Understandably, many students view academic life as an arcane ritual. 23. Blank (i) C. defiant Blank (ii) D. disregard for Answer in
