[1]But now, things are different. Today ' s university students usually experience great difficulties finding satisfactory jobs. They often complain that graduation means joblessness. [2]What is the cause of this phenomenon? [3]Firstly, with the enrollment extension of universities, [4]the supply of university graduates exceeds social demand. This results in a decreased chance for any individual graduate to find a job. [3]Secondly, university students [5]tend to spend most of their time at school in studying academic subjects and lack relevant job experience. [3]Thirdly, some students don't study hard during the college. After four years of university life, they haven't gained the knowledge those fairly good jobs or positions require. [6]Facing the increasingly fierce competition, we university students should try our bests to change this situation. [3]Above all, when in school, we should make the most of our time and [7]put our heart into our studies. [3]What's more, we can take part-time jobs and attend social activities in our spare time to [8]accumulate relevant practical experience. [3]Besides, when we apply for jobs after graduation, we should [9]attach more importance to accumulating experience than to the starting salary. 【亮点点评】 [1]过去和现在进行对比。 [2]设问句引出原因，容易引起注意。 [3]过渡衔接词语，使文章条理清晰、衔接紧密。 [4]“大学生供过于求”。 [5]“倾向，趋于”。 [6]“面对日趋激烈的竞争”，现在分词作状语。 [7]“用心学习”。 [8]“积累相关的实际经验”。 [9]“更加关注”。 佳句临摹 1.佳句：Facing the increasingly fierce competition, university students should try their best to change this situation. 临摹：经历过艰苦，我们就会更懂得如何应对危机。
