Checkpoint 3 2. Direct Speech and Indirect Speech Teaching

Important Points : 1. Checkpoint 3 2. Direct Speech and Indirect

Speech Teaching Difficult Points : the use of the Indirect Speech

Teaching Methods : Inductive method , deductive method and observing method . Teaching Aids : 1. a recorder . 2. a slide projector Teaching Procedures : Step I . Revision T: Good morning everyone . Ss: Good morning , teacher. T: Sit down , please , Now I ‘ ll check the homework . Ren Ping , please do Ex.1 on Page 69 ---

Step II . Listening . T: In the last two periods , we ‘ ve learned something about the differences between American English and English spoken in England . Today , we are going to listen to a dialogue , An American woman . Terry is talking to her friend David

. Let ‘ s listen to what they are talking about . Please listen carefully , then we ‘ ll do exercises on Page 129. Listening Text : David : What ‘ s it like living in England , Terry ? Terry : Well , I ‘ m having a great time , But I guess I sometimes have a little difficulty understanding what people are saying . David : Can you explain a bit more ? Do you have some trouble with our pronunciation ? Terry :

No , but you use a lot of different words over here that I don ‘ t understand. David : Can you give an example ? Terry : A woman said she would ring me the next day . David : What ‘ s strange about that ? Terry : Well , we say , I ‘ ll call you tomorrow , David : Now that sounds very funny to me ! Terry : There ' s another thing . In the States people stand closer to each other than English people . For example , if I ' m talking to English people at a party . I find that they stand quite a long way away from me . David : Anything else ? Terry : Well , yes , It ' s clear to me that English people don ' t like touching somebody or being touched , Now in the States touch is important , Friends touch each other on the arm , for example . And we often put an arm round a friend when we say " Hello " or " Goodbye " . So I have to remember not to touch people when I ' m in England. David : What else ? Terry : You drive on the left and we drive on the right . I almost got killed on the street , the other day . I looked to the left and started to cross, There was a car coming from my right ! Luckily it stopped and didn ' t hit me . (Play the cassette twice , Let the Ss check their answers in pairs , then with the whole class. Play the tape to check the answers .) Suggested answers : Ex.1. English language , words , parties , touching , saying " Hello " and " Goodbye " , driving , Ex. 2. True : 2. 4. Ex. 3. 1. What ' s it like living in England , Terry ? 2. A woman said she would ring me the next day . 3. What ' s strange about that ? 4. Well , we say " I ' ll call you tomorrow . " 5. Now that sounds funny to me ! 6. So I have to remember not to touch people when I ' m in England. Step III . Checkpoint T: Please turn to Page 12. Look at checkpoint 3.
