About 100 private entrepreneurs yesterday applied to be World Expo 2010 volunteers in Shanghai. They also presented a scroll containing their signatures to the organizer to show their support for the event. A group of Chinese private businesses will construct a corporate pavilion exploring the theme "Infinite Vitality." The pavilion will showcase a vigorous and beautiful urban life. It will be funded by private companies and will illustrate their visions for the future. Covering 6,000 square meters on the Puxi side of the Expo site, it is expected to be financed by more than 10 private companies.
