Shoppers, traders and businessmen in Red Lion Street were shocked by a loud bang, and seconds later the two men jumped over from the vehicle. Several people rushed to give assistance and helped to put out the fire inside the vehicle. “ I heard this explosion. It was pretty loud. I thought it could have been a bomb. ” Said Mr. Leslie Webster, manager of the market, who was working in his office in Red Lion Street. “ I looked out of the window and saw this lad leap from the van and roll on the ground. Then another lad came out of the van. He seemed to be in a worse state--- parts of his trousers were hanging below his knee. ” “ I came downstairs to get a fire extinguisher (灭火器) , but by the time I got outside someone from the bank was in the van with an extinguisher. ” Mr. Webster, who lives at 71, Trinity Street, Norwich, said both victims were shocked. One was taken into the market’s office to await an ambulance. “ The second man insisted on going back into the van to see if everything was all right, and five minutes later he came out with a drawer that was blazing. ” He added. The explosion was also heard inside the bank. Staff provided a fire extinguisher and telephoned for an ambulance. Although a plastic window was blown out, damage inside the vehicle was mainly superficial. The two men have spent the last six months touring the Continent and has traveled to Norwich from Snetterton. At the time of the incident their wives were shopping in the city.
