Picasso and the poet Max Jacob, down but not out in Paris, shared a bed in turn. Jacob slept at night while Picasso worked, and Picasso slept by day when Jacob worked as a novelty-shop clerk. On arising in the morning, Jacob often would have to walk on a floor carpeted with drawings. Later, Jacobs footprints had to be removed by art experts. Albert Einstein, who was awarded the Nobel Prize for physics in 1921, was honored not for his famous theory of relativity published sixteen years earlier, but for his lesser-known work on the photoelectric effect. 参考译文：

：down but not out in Paris 首先，这个可不是词组，关键在于down的解释，down有一个意思为：away from an important place, esp a large city离开重要的地方(尤指大城市)，Paris可是世界之都哦，此句意为：他们离开巴黎市中心但是未搬出巴黎。再看一个词novelty-shop，很多朋友把它解释为：新奇的商店，因为novelty有新奇、新颖之意，但它还有一个意思：(廉价的)小玩具、小饰品等，所以这个词是“玩具饰物店”的

意思。第三个问题是：Later, Jacobs footprints had to be removed by art experts.可能翻出来自己也会觉得怪怪的吧，这句话要和前面那句先联系起来，Jacob often would have to walk on a floor carpeted with drawings.这里的carpet作动词解，用carpeted with drawings来形容floor,地板是铺满画纸的地板，这句话理解了，后面那句话就容易了，因为画纸上满是脚印，所以不得不请艺术专家来去除这些脚印，later意为“后来”，不是“不久”的意思哦。这篇故事虽然短小，但有不少玄机在里面吧(苹果窃笑一下。)后面那则故事没啥问题，大家都容易理解，但里面有两个专业术语可以注意一下：theory of relativity和photoelectric effect。100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
