Some people think examination is the only best way to test how examinees have mastered what they have studied. [2]However, still others hold the opposite opinion. They argue that examination can ' t measure how the students have really studied.

They say it can do [3]nothing but burden the students. [4]As for me, I think the examination is very useful to both teachers and students. [4]On the one hand, examination can help teachers check how much students have learned about a subject and thus know what should be their teaching focus. [4]On the other hand, [5]as far as students are concerned, by examination, they can [6]not only know how they have studied [6]but also find out what they haven't mastered well. [4]Thus, they could improve their studying method so as to make greater progress. [4]Of course, examination is not the only way to measure one's ability. [4]Also, too many examinations are a burden on both teachers and students. [4]But, in sum, the examination [7]does more good than harm. Therefore, I think the correct attitude towards examination should be to [8]take full advantage of it and avoid its disadvantage. 【亮点点评】 [1]用于表示某事存在争议。 [2]用于引出对立观点。 [3]“仅仅，只是”。 [4]过渡衔接词语，使文章条理清晰、衔接紧密。 [5]“就...而言”。 [6]用于连接并列成分。 [7]“利大于弊”。 [8]“扬长避短”。 佳句临摹 1.佳句：They say it can do nothing but burden the students. 临摹：最终，不诚实只会带来麻烦。
