Introduction What is IELTS?来源：
考试大 IELTS, the International English Language Testing System, is designed to assess the language ability of candidates who need to study or work where English is the language of communication. IELTS is jointly managed by the University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations (Cambridge ESOL), British Council and IDP: IELTS Australia. IELTS conforms to the highest international standards of language assessment. It covers the four language skills listening, reading, writing and speaking. IELTS is recognized by universities and employers in many countries, including Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the UK and the USA. It is also recognized by professional bodies, immigration authorities and other government agencies. IELTS is not recommended for candidates under the age of 16. Test Administration IELTS tests are administered at centers throughout the world there are currently over 300 centers operating in more than 100 countries. Centers supervise the local administration of the test and ensure the provision of qualified and trained examiners. A full list of centers is available on the IELTS website. Test centers run regular test administrations, according to local need and results are available within two weeks. Candidates receive only one copy of their results but additional copies may be sent by the test centre directly to receiving organizations at the request of the candidate. There are no restrictions on candidates re-taking the test.(Examda.com)

Academic and General Training IELTS is available in two formats Academic and General Training. The Academic Reading and Writing tests assess whether a candidate is ready to study or train in the medium of English at an undergraduate or postgraduate level. Admission to undergraduate and postgraduate courses is based on the results of these tests. The General Training Reading and Writing tests are not designed to test the full range of formal language skills required for academic purposes, but emphasize basic survival skills in a broad social and educational context. General Training is suitable for candidates who are going to English-speaking countries to complete their secondary education, to undertake work experience or training programs not at degree level, or for immigration purposes to Australia, Canada and New Zealand. It is the responsibility of the candidate to inform the test centre whether they wish to take the Academic or General Training Modules. Centers are not responsible for providing this information. The General Training Module is not offered at all test administrations. Test Format Candidates are tested in listening, reading, writing and speaking. All candidates take the same Listening and Speaking tests. There is a choice between Academic and General Training in the Reading and Writing tests. (Examda.com) The tests are designed to cover the full range of ability from non-user to expert user. The first three tests Listening, Reading and Writing must be completed in one day. There is no break between the tests. The Speaking test may be taken, at the discretion of the test centre, in the period seven days before or after the other tests. A computerized version of IELTS Listening, Reading and Writing tests (CB IELTS) is available at 0selected centers, but all centers will continue to offer paper-based IELTS and candidates will be given the choice of the medium in which they wish to take the test.(Examda.com) 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
