: www.examda.com The most interesting speech I have ever attended was about how to improve English, which is given by Doctor Lee. As she said that Strategically, as we are in a non-English speaking country, the only way to improve English is to use it. As they say, you either use it or lose it. That is why I insist that the key to improve English is just to stay motivated, keep working on it and keep practicing it. Think of it as a goal you are working towards, and just stay focus, you can do it. You see, I watch English videos and listen to English audios. read English books, magazines and newspapers. surf the Internet in English. speak English and write English all that really keep me busy every day! Reading is your easiest way to feel English. It is not painful, but helps a lot. There are too many materials for you to read and you must select those you find useful, appropriate and have interest in. I think this is an interesting lecture not only because Doctor Lee used different ways to present her ideas of how to learn English such as PPT with pictures and music but also her suggestions have made my way of studying English brighter and more fun. 2、玩具 思路：Toy Girls normally regard dolls as their favorite toy during the childhood. Although I am that kind of girl who likes possessing lots of dolls, I still got one. It was not only a common doll in the shop window, it was a beautiful memory of my first love. I still remember it was a summer vacation. I went to the playroom with a boy. In the playroom, if you can achieve a certain requirements, a cute doll will be yours. He tried his best to make it, after several times trying, he did it, which meant, in turn, I got the pretty doll. He sent it to me, and said: it is as lovely as you, I sent it to you. I laughed, it was my first doll.

3、广告思路：1. 什么广告 2. 卖什么产品的 3. 有什么内容

There are always so many annoying advertisements on TV, such as medicine, computer and food. But some of them are really interesting. Yesterday I saw an impressive advertisement which is selling spring water. A train was stopping on a railway station for a long time during some unknown problems. A girl in the train was looking outside the train with her beautiful and worrying eyes. She found a worker was working hard along the rail way. It ' s a hot day. we could imagine from the camera that the worker must be very thirsty. Then the girl gives her spring water to the worker gently with lovely smile. The work also smiles. Although this advertisement does not show how fantastic the product is. I could feel that it must be very sweet.

4、家庭成员来源：www.100test.com 思路：Who is he/she? What does he/she do? Why do you describe him/her? I am so luck to have a large family, my parents, a brother and little sister, and grandparents. My grandpa is the most strict men in my family who is the only one that I always don ' t have a word with when I was a little girl. He often told me what should a good student do and how to be a politely even when should I do exercises. With time passing by, I realized that how important my grandpa taught me. When I was a high school student,

I still liked to listen to his stories, including history, politics and economics, which are benefit to my further study and I want to say thanks to him.

5、交通堵塞 思路：When Where Your feeling I still remember vividly my last trip to QingHai Lake in May. The plane was delayed, and it took me a long time to find a taxi downtown. I spent twice the price as in usual days to rent a jeep to drive to the lake. When I arrived, I found the Great Yellow Fish, the delicious endangered fish, was eaten up by other tourists. On the way back, a car accident blocked the road, so I spent over six hours waiting and it was almost 2:00 am when I was back to the hotel. I can hardly say the trip was great and such case was not rare among my friends traveling on that May holidays. It is unwise to travel on holidays because so many traffic jams waiting for you

6、健康活动 思路：是什么？有什么内容。 我的感受？ As for the sports event, I would like to talk about the hottest one during these days. It is the NBA competition between the team Rocket and LAL. It was said that the power of the team LAL went far beyond the power of the team Rocket because there are many basketball superstars there, such as Kobe, the talent of basketball and so on. However, after the first competition, all of the audience cheered for the victory of Rocket and changed their views, for all of the members of the Rocket tried their best to win the game even though some of the members hurt badly. Now the result is 3:3. In the following days, the fierce competition will go on and I really expect the team Rocket can win the game because I am moved deeply by the persistence of all the team members.

7、儿歌 思路：什么歌 什么时候学的 有什么内

容 When I was a little girl, I learned a song from my grandmother which is named the little rabbit. It is so sweet that I could still remember it clearly. The melody of this song is very simple, just like other children ' s songs. What is really interesting is its lyric. It tells a story about a clever rabbit and a wicked wolf. The wolf wants to eat the bunny so much that he knocked his door when the mother rabbit was not at home. But the bunny was very smart. he refused to open the door. Because his mother told him that do not open the door to a stranger. So the wolf went back with an empty stomach at last. In my country, almost every child will learn this song in their childhood. And I guess it could be one of the most popular songs in china because of its lovely melody and educational meaning.

8、 家乡的一部分 思路：什么地方 什么特征 我的感受 I would like to talk about my hometown Kaifeng City. You know, I was born there, so I loved the place very much. The house which we lived in was not a big one with about only 20 square meters. However, the special thing for it was that it was a bungalow which was very different from the storied one because the neighbors always knew each other very well and the relationships among the neighbors were always good. Now, we still contact with each other just like relatives even though we were separated. Every time I go home, I will go there to have a look though the house is not there now, because I really miss the days of my childhood.

9、 历史的地点 思路： Where When The meaning Sth you get from it Well, I like travelling and have already been to many historical place, but today I want to say something about The Yellow River Scenic Area, which is the headstream of Chinese culture. It is so great to see the fantastic view I have never seen. The Yellow River Scenic Area is situated northwest of Zhengzhou City, 30 kilometers away from downtown, in Henan Province. The scenic area is surprisingly beautiful. As seen from a high point in this scenic area, the mighty Yellow River rushes by and demonstrates tremendous force with rolling and falling of the river's torrents. Sometimes in its thousands of miles, the river reaches wide endless plains where currents flow smoothly, and sometimes it meets precipitous mountains where it has to zigzag its way. Really, traveling can purify our soul. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
