Reading Comprehension A I fell in love with England because it was quaint (古雅) -all those little houses , looking terribly old-fashioned but nice , like dolls houses. I loved the countryside and the pubs , and I loved London. Ive slightly changed my mind after seventeen years because I think its an ugly town now. Things have changed. For everybody , England meant gentlemen , fair play , and good manners. The fair play is going , unfortunately , and so are the gentlemanly attitudes and good manners-people shut doors heavily in your face and politeness is disappearing. I regret that there are so few comfortable meeting places. Youre forced to live indoors. In Paris I go out much more , to restaurants and nightclubs. To meet friends here it usually has to be in a pub , and it can be difficult to go there alone as a woman. The cafes are not terribly nice. As a woman , I feel unsafe here. I spend a bomb on taxis because I will not take public transport after 10 p. m. I used to use it , but now Im afraid. The idea of family seems to be more or less non-existent in England. My family is well united and thats typically French. In Middlesex I had a neighbour who is 82 now. His family only lived two miles away , but I took him to France for Christmas once because he was always alone. () 41. The writer doesn't like London because she _____. A. is not used to the life there now B. has lived there for seventeen years C. prefers to live in an old-fashioned house D. has to be polite to everyone she meets there () 42. Where do people usually meet their friends in England ? A. In a cafe. B. In a restaurant. C. In a nightclub. D. In a pub. () 43. The underlined part " it " (in Para. 4) refers to _____. A. a taxi B. the money C. a bomb D. public transport () 44. The writer took her neighbour to France for Christmas because he _____. A. felt lonely in England B. had never been to France C. was from a typical French family D. didn't like the British idea of family
