minutes, 10 points) Directions: Translate the following passage into Chinese and put your translation on the ANSWER SHEET. Each year in United States more people are killed or injured in accidents at home, at work or at school, at play, or while traveling than were killed or injured in the Vietnam war. In the early 1990s, about half of these accidental deaths were the result of motor-vehicle accidents. Other major causes of accidental deaths were falls, fires, and poisoning. On a worldwide basis, accidents involving motor vehicles are the primary cause of accidental deaths, followed by accidents in industry and in the home. Efforts to lessen or to eliminate the hazardous conditions that cause accidents are known as safety measures. Safety is a growing concern around the world, and safety skills are being taken more seriously today than ever before. People have come to realize that safety skills can be learned, and most safety experts agree that it is possible to predict, and take steps to prevent, the majority of accidents. Few accidents simply “ happen ” . Most are caused by ignorance, carelessness, neglect, or lack of skill. Part Writing (30 minutes, 15 points) Directions: You are to write in no less than 120 words about the topic “ On the Significance of the Qing-Zang Railroad ” . Your composition should be based on the Chinese clues given below. 青藏铁路于今年7月1日通车。请简单地谈谈青藏铁路建成和通车的重大意义，如经济、文化、旅游等方面。
