about a great change that occurred at some point in your life You should say: What the change was and when it happened If it was special for you or usual for all people How it has changed your life And please explain your feelings about it. Honestly I haven't thought about this much. The one and only great change I can think of now is leaving school. Look, after going to school for more than 16 years, all of my life has been so used to school, my daily schedule, my mindset, my social life, etc. The world outside the school seems so familiar and yet so strange. My feelings are mixed with ambition, hope, expectation, as well as uneasiness, insecurity and worries. It is such a difficult time. I am like a person lost in the no-man's land, not knowing where to turn. Anyway, most people have to face this change once they leave school. It is a total challenge. But just as one great mind has once said, " life is always full of changes and uncertainties. we just do all that we can and hope for the best. " 人生当中充满了变化和不确定，如：上大学，然后毕业离开学校步入社会，或者首次离开自己的家庭，初次参与工作，结婚，生子等等。但是人生总要在这些变化中寻找出路，开创辉煌 (change is just a path into another phase of life. one needs not only to get used to it, but also make use of it) 。 What are some important changes that people generally have? As far as I know it, graduation from college, joining the workforce, marriage and the birth of the child all are very important changes that most people would have to go through at certain time of their life. How can family and society help young people to cope with changes? It will be of great help for one ' s family to stand together with him or her and give support along with suggestions in times of need. 相关链接：1月雅思考试网友机经汇总月刊 百考试题特别推荐雅思新手入门指导 各国高校认可雅思考试成绩单及分数要求 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
