1. Sentences About Photographs Format The first part of TOEIC consists of twenty numbered photographs that are in your test book. For each photograph, you will hear on the audio program four sentences that refer to it. You must decide which of the sentences best describes something you can see in each photograph. The photographs are pictures of ordinary situations. Around two-thirds of the photographs involve a person or people. around one-third involve an object or a scene without people. The sentences are short and grammatically simple. They generally deal with the most important aspects of the photographs, but some focus on small details or on objects or people in the background. Each item is introduced by a statement that tells you to look at the next numbered photograph. The pacing for this part is fast: There is only a five-second pause between items, and there is no pause between sentences (A), (B), (C), and (D).

Tactics

1. Always complete each item as quickly as possible so that you can preview the photograph for the next item. Dont wait for the statement that says, "Now look at photograph number ___."
2. If you are previewing a photograph that involves a person or people, look for aspects of the photographs that are often mentioned in the sentences: What are the people doing? Where are they? Who are they? (Is there a uniform or piece of equipment or anything else that indicates their profession or role?)

What distinguishes them? (Is there a hat, a mustache, a puree, a pair of glasses, a tie, or anything else that differentiates the people?) What do the peoples expressions tell you? (Do they look happy? Unhappy? Excited? Bored? Upset?) 相关推荐：#0000ff>TOEIC verbal word list #0000ff>TOEIC verbal word list #0000ff>商业托福135个难点词汇记忆 #0000ff>2010年托福考试网校辅导，报名送E币！ 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
