"These are the areas where you will find the forces of resistance to the proposals for financial regulation that we have put on the table," said Lagarde ahead of the Group of 20 summit opening on Thursday in the US city Pittsburgh.本文来源:百考试题网 France is leading calls for greater regulation of the financial sector, in particular curbs on bankers ' bonuses to avert a repeat of last year ' s global meltdown. But Britain and the United States have reacted coolly to the French proposals. "The financial crisis will be behind us when we will have truly addressed the root of the evil," said Lagarde, who argued for reform, greater regulation and supervision of the financial industry.
