It is well known that a museum is a building to display a collection of artistic,historical,cultural or military objects. ndoubtedly museums can have a variety of purposes in the city. I think two roles the museums play can illustrate they areworth visiting.Now we talk about how to fund a museum. A museum can never be considered as a financial burden to society. I suggest that the Government should invest a small amount of money on advertisements for the museums in the city. For example, ads of the museums should be forwarded on the travel brochures or maps of the city. Consequently tourists come and admission tickets are collected. Both reputation and funds are earned. Conclusion (23 words) In brief, museums should play a role as an instructive means of the city and incomes from admission can keep them running properly.作文重点句子（另外一篇的）

：when people travel to new places, local museums are usually must-sees if they want to have better understanding of the places. visiting museums helps people understand another countrys history, culture, and even lifestyle. people like to visit museums because most of them want to see unique works of arts. visiting museums which are reflections of the local culture will enrich the understanding of a town, a city or even a country. 另外，2009年大学英语四级成绩查询、分数线等信息，百考试题英语四六级外语网都将争取在第一时间对外发布，服务广大考生！最新2009年四六级信
