They tend to make almost all decisions for their children, from choosing school to picking up a profession and to deciding whom they are to marry. Sometimes even those detail things such as clothing and daily timetables have to be decided by parents. However, deciding everything for children does not help them but harm them in many ways. On the one hand, it will make children lack independence and initiative, which is unfavourable to their development in the long run. On the other hand, in many cases parents decisions are not always in accordance with children personal ideas and interests, this will make children form resistance and naturely influence their growth. 本文来源: 百考试题网 From my point of view, it is unwise for parents to make every decision for their children. It is obvious that parents can not accompany their children for ever. To grow to be independent is a nature way for everybody. Therefore, in my opinion parents should give their children chances to make their own decisions. They may help their children make choices instead of replacing them to make choices. 相关推荐：大学英语四级考试阅读笔记汇总 大学英语四级阅读超级攻略 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
