Conservation or Wasted Effort? The black robin (旅鸫) is one of the worlds rarest birds. It is a small, wild bird, and it lives only on the island of Little Mangere, off the coast of New Zealand. In 1967 there were about fifty black robins there. in 1977 there were fewer than ten. _____ (46) Energetic steps are being taken to preserve the black robin. _____ (47) The idea is to buy another island nearby as a special home, a "reserve", for threatened wild life, including black robins. The organizers say that Little Mangere should then be restocked (重新准备) with the robins food. Thousands of the required plants are at present being cultivated in New Zealand. Is all this concern a waste of human effort? _____ (48) Are we losing our sense of what is reasonable and what is unreasonable? In the earths long, long past hundreds of kinds of creatures have evolved, risen to a degree of success and died out. In the long, long future there will be many new and different forms of life. Those creatures that adapt themselves successfully to what the earth offers will survive for a long time. _____ (49)

This is natures proven method of operation.采集者退散 The rule of Oselection--"the survival of the fittest"--is the one by which human beings have themselves arrived on the scene. We, being one of the most adaptable creatures the earth has yet produced, may last longer than most. _____ (50) You may take it as another rule that when, at last, human beings show signs of dying out, no other creature will extend a paw (爪) to postpone our departure. On the contrary, we will be hurried out. Life seems to have grown too tough for black robins. I leave you to judge whether we should try to do anything about it. A Some creatures, certain small animals, insects and birds, will almost certainly outlast (比...长久) man, for they seem even more adaptable. B Those that fail to meet the challenges will disappear early. C Detailed studies are going on, and a public appeal for money has been made. D Both represent orders in the classification of life. E Is it any business of ours whether the black robin survives or dies out? F These are the only black robins left in the world. 答案：F C E B A 相关推荐：2011职称英语理工词汇选项训练汇总 2011年理工A考试阅读判断练习汇总 为了能及时获取2011年职称英语相关信息，建议大家收藏#333333>百考试题职称英语考试频道点击收藏，我们会第一时间发布相关信息。 #ff0000>百考试题职称英语考试网衷心感谢各位网友在2010年支持和关心我们的工作！ 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
