A Dutch history student has unearthed (发掘 , 破获) the worlds oldest share, dating back to 1606 and issued by the sea trading firm Dutch East India Company. Locked away in forgotten city archives (档案) , the share was made out to Pieter Harmensz, a male resident of the Dutch city Enkhuizen who served as an assistant to the citys mayors. After his death in 1638, Harmensz left the share to his widow and their daughter Ada and the document eventually ended up in Enkhuizen archives, kept in the northwestern city Hoorn. As the Netherlands largest trading company in the 17th and 18th centuries, the Dutch East India Company (VOC) was also the worlds first company to issue stock. The Enkhuizen share dates back to September 9, 1606, when Harmensz paid the last installment of his 150 Dutch guilders (荷兰盾 , 金币) . Dutch research has shown the VOC faced early financial difficulties and shareholders were not initially paid dividends (股息 , 红利) . The company finally started paying dividends in 1610, partly in money and spices (调味料) , following strong shareholder pressure. An interesting feature on the Enkhuizen share therefore is a series of notes on the inside relating to dividends up to 1650. The share is to be displayed at the Westfries Museum. 相关推荐 : #0000ff>金融英语 : 挑战银行英语口语汇总 #0000ff>金融财经英语表达汇总 #0000ff>金融英语跟单信用证术语 编辑推荐 : #0000ff>金融英语阅读辅导、世界金融动向 #0000ff>2011年度金融英语证书FECT考试时间 : 6月11日、12日 #0000ff>金融英语证书考试 (FECT) Exercises汇总 #0000ff>国际金融习题集英语版 , #0000ff>金融英语报考指南 #0000ff>金融英语 : 模拟试题 , #0000ff>金融英语试题库 更多信息请进 : #0000ff>金融英语考试交流区 ! 100Test 下载频道开通 , 各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
