The Internet A Blessing or Curse? Nowadays college students often use the Internet for study, shopping, entertainment, and many other things. Some people say that the Internet facilitates students lives, but others worry that it might affect students study. In my opinion, the Internet is good for college students when it is used appropriately.

The Internet is good for college students. First, students can collect many kinds of information via the Internet. When students find something interesting in the book, but their teacher cannot give them more details or answer all their questions in class, they can search the Internet after class to find the details or answers by themselves.
