The grand spirit of Anti-aggression is a vivid reflection of the Chinese people ' s persistent solidarity. Upon the Japanese invasion, China ' s sons and daughters, here or there, old or young, rich or poor, gather together with one mind and build up an insurmountable Great Wall in resistance, with their flesh and blood. “ Indulge never in money and rank, apostatize never when in poverty and hardship, surrender never to power and force. ” In times of national crisis, this formidable mettle and dauntless integrity prompt China ' s sons and daughters to go through fire and water with the courage of despair, making the anti-Japanese war moving and praise-worthy. It is now the 60th anniversary of China ' s anti-Japanese war and the world ' s anti-fascism war. And it is still of great significance today for us to review the buskined history of fire and blood, to recall the great feats of the gallant martyrs, and to carry forward our nation ' s infinite morale of anti-aggression. 相关推荐
