The company is a joint venture between General Motors, the United States largest auto company, and Shanghai Automotive Industrial Corporation. It said Monday it is recalling more than 133,000 2-liter and 2.4-liter Regal sedans and almost 100,000 2.4-liter LaCrosse sedans. All of the cars were manufactured before October 14 last year. The company said the fuel lines can break under extreme conditions, causing the engines to malfunction. It said there is also a danger of oil leaks, which could cause fires. 相关推荐：#0000ff>双语时事：巴基斯坦法庭推迟对关押的美官员作出裁定 #0000ff>双语时事：奥
