EX Every generation of people is different in important ways. How is your generation different from your parents' generation? Use specific reasons and examples to explain your answer. The principal differences between my generation and my parents' generation are in how they relate to others. My generation is more tolerant of other people's choices, less concerned about what others think, and more self-centered. My parents' generation has stricter standards about what kinds of behavior are acceptable. They sometimes have a hard time accepting the fact that other people may have different ideas about what's right and what's wrong. My generation thinks people should have a lot of choices. For example, they choose whom they want to live with, whether or not to have children, whether or not to practice a particular religion, and what to do for a living. My parents' generation is much more concerned about what other people think of them. Many grew up in tightly knit communities where people knew each other's families. Fitting in meant that you had to act a certain way. Many of my generation grew up in loosely knit communities, where we only knew about our closest neighbors. We didn't care what the rest of the community thought of us. Also, we were a very rebellious generation and often did things just to shock people. Wherever we grew up, most of my generation didn't have to worry about having enough to eat or a roof over our heads. For this reason, my parents didn't have time to analyze their feelings or think about their inner selves. They were too busy trying to get by. Children of my generation were well taken care of by their parents. Because of that, we had time to think about ourselves and our place in the universe. As adults, many of us have continued to be self-absorbed. We join health clubs to be perfect in body and go into therapy to be perfect in mind. 相关推荐：托福满分作文幸福是否可以用金钱购买 托福写作优秀范文实例汇总 新托福写作辅导：新东方范文50篇下载 托福范文系列汇总 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
