Conversation One
M: Hello, Professor Johnson. W: Hello, Tony. So what shall we work on today? M: Well, the problem is that the writing assignment isn't coming out right. What I thought I was writing on was to talk about what a particular sport means to me when I participate in. W: What sport did you choose? M: I decided to write about cross-country skiing. W: What are you going to say about skiing? M: That's the problem. I thought I would write about how peaceful it is to be out in the country. W: So why is that a problem? M: I'd like to start describing how quiet it is to be out in the woods. I keep mentioning how much efforts it takes to keep going. Cross-country skiing isn't as simple as some people think. It takes a lot of energy but that's not heart of my paper, so I guess I should leave it out. But now I don't know how to explain that peacefulness without explaining how hard you have to work for it. It all fits together. It's not like just sitting down somewhere and watching the clouds roll by. That's different. W: Then you have to include that in your point. The peacefulness of cross-country skiing is the kind you earn by effort. Why leave that out. Part of the point you knew beforehand, but part you discovered when you wrote. That's common, right? M: Yeah, I guess so. 19. What's the topic of the man ' s writing assignment? 20. What problem does the man have while working on his paper? 21. What does the woman say is common in writing papers? Conversation Two W: Good evening and welcome to this weeks Business World. It program for and about business people. Tonight we have Mr. Angelino who came to the US six years ago, and is now an established businessman with three restaurants in town. Tell us Mr. Angelino, how did you get started? M: Well I started off with a small diner. I did all the cooking myself and my wife waited on tables. It was really too much work for two people. My cooking is great. And word got around town about the food. Within a year, I had to hire another cook and four waitresses. When that restaurant became very busy, I decided to expand my business. Now with three places my main concern is keeping the business successful and running smoothly. W: Do you advertise? M: Oh yes. I dont have any TV commercials, because they are too expensive. But I advertise a lot on radio and in local newspapers. My children used to distribute ads in nearby shopping centers, but we dont need to do that anymore. W: Why do you believe youve been so successful? M: Uhm, I always serve the freshest possible food and I make the atmosphere as comfortable and as pleasant as I can, so that my customers will want to come back. W: So you always aim to please the customers? M: Absolutely! Without them I would have no business at all. W: Thank you Mr. Angelino. I think your advice will be helpful to those just staring out in business. 22 What is the woman ' s occupation? 23 What do we learn about Mr. Angelino ' s business at its beginning? 24 What does Mr. Angelino say about
