1.参加高考的人数有所下降 2.有人认为职业教育更为重要 3.你的看法 【范文】 Vocational education or college education ?

The number of people who take the college entrance examination has been decreasing these years. Some people consider vocational education an advantage to job-hunting, while others argue that a college diploma is more important. In my opinion, college education is more advisable or most people. [4]First, college education is systematic and students can learn a lot in many aspects. Unlike vocational, which always focuses on just one job skill, college education enables students to develop different po-tentials.15|Second, to obtain a higher degree, such as a master ' s degree, one has to go through college education to a bachelor ' s degree first. In a society where any job skill may become outdate-ed quickly with the appearance of new technologies, the limitations of vocational education prove even more serious. Only college education can prepare us for future challenges. 预测作文：
