Lets Your Secret Out Your cell phone holds secrets about you.
Besides the names and (51) that youve programmed into it, traces of your DNA linger(逗留) on the device, according to a new study. DNA is genetic(遗传的) material that (52) in every cell. Like your fingerprint, your DNA is unique to you the users ear. The scientists scrubbed(用力擦洗.擦净) the phones using a solution made mostly (61) alcohol. The aim of washing was to remove all detectable traces of DNA. The owners got their phones (62) for another week. Then the researchers collected the phones and repeated the swabbing of each phone once more. The scientists discovered DNA that (63) to the phones speaker on each of the phones. Better samples were collected from the outside of each phone, but those swabs also picked up DNA that belonged to other people who had apparently also handled the phone (64), DNA showed up even in swabs that were taken immediately after the phones were scrubbed. That suggests that washing wont remove all traces of evidence from a criminals device. So cell phones can now be added to the (65)of clues that can clinch(确定,决定) a crime-scene investigation. 51. A numbers B. music C. secrets D. films 52 A
