很多同学在准备托福口语的时候，不太清楚回答口语问题时的具体思路是什么，考官在考生回答第一句的时候，可能就已经给一个学生下定论了，那么怎样回答才能拿高分呢？下面结合新托福口语实例给大家列出了一些参考答案，希望对大家有所启发。 Some people choose a major that may guarantee them a good job. Other people choose a major out of their personal interest in that area.

Which do you think is a good idea and why? (06. 8.26. 07. 3.3 考题)

Well, I would prefer the latter one. You know, interest is very important for a person ' s study. A strong interest could make a person immersed in his study and learn a lot of things. If he could do an excellent job in his major he could also be very successful in his career. As the saying goes “ There are topmost masters in every profession ” .If a person chose a major he shows no interest in, he might find it boring and he would lack the enthusiasm to study it hard.No interest and no enthusiasm is not a good thing for a student. He might learn little knowledge in this field, which would not guarantee him a good job. Where do you learn more from, media like newspapers, TV , Internet or people like friends, family and teachers? Well, as far as I am concerned, I learn more from Internet.First, there is a lot of information in all kinds of subjects in the Internet. There are articles, e-books and multimedia clips.You can surely find something of your interest and read them or download them and read later. The initiative of learning is in your hand. What 's more, the Internet is dynamic and interactive, this means the Internet information is always changing and you can exchange your ideas with other Internet users. Thus you can get instant information and learn more from each other. Should government give financial support to build museums and theaters? State your opinion and explain why. Well, in my view, it 's necessary for governments to provide funds to build museums and theatres. First of all, museums and theatres play an important role in promoting citizens ' sense of art and culture. A good citizenship is very important for the development of a country in the long run. Secondly, museums and theatres can offer people entertainment. Museum exhibits and wonderful performances in theatres are excellent stuff to relax and entertain people. In addition, governments could make a lot of profits from these buildings. Since many people go to museums and theatres they will spend much money in these places and this could contribute to the local economic prosperity. 以上这些新托福口语实例是针对不同话题进行的一些阐述，大家可以作为参考。相关推荐：#0000ff>托福日常口语、习惯语100句汇总 #0000ff>托福口语常用的13句套话 #0000ff>托福口语丢分原因分析 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
