Students will be entitled to the degree (awarded by Oxford Brookes University) on completing the first two parts of the new Professional Scheme of examinations, and then submitting a Research and Analysis Project to the university for assessment. The Project examines graduate skills, focusing particularly on the ability of students to carry out research and analysis. Students currently registered with ACCA must read the degree scheme eligibility requirements given on the left of this page to determine whether they are eligible for registration with Oxford Brookes University for the BSc (Hons) in Applied Accounting. 100Test 下载频道开通，各类考试题目直接下载。详细请访问 www.100test.com
